LOCAL MATTERS. THE VOTE FOR HIGH-CONSTABLE.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM MR. DUESBERRY HIS REASONS FOR DESIRING A RECOUNT THE MATTER REFERRED TO THE CITY COMMITTEE.

Mr. Duesberry yesterday addressed the following letter to Colonel John B. Cary: RICHMOND, May 10, 1876. J. B. Cary, Esq., President of Commissioners of Conservative Primary Elec-missioners at their meeting last night de- tennial from Virginia. clined to allow a review of the ballots because no special errors were mentioned I formed me that in the poll-books of Second night the resignation of Major John H. in my favor and against Mr. Whiting of read and accepted. For the present Mr. L. from forty to fifty votes was discovered at H. Frayser will act as chief. the Central Committee-rooms, and that number in the Central Committeeroom taken off of the vote the commissioners before leaving their precinct had decided as having been received by me and given to him. Mr. H. S. Morton, a candipate for clerk of the Chancery Court, also informed me that he saw errors in the pollbooks for the office of high-constable. Mr. George Stokes and Mr. P. W. Ralston, commissioners from Marshall and Clay Wards, informed me they discovered errors in their poll-books; that in the Second (Marshall) Ward as many as eighteen. Other parties have informed me that in the Fourth (Monroe) Ward a number of errors were seen. These errors cause me to believe that in the hurry and press of the election that many errors occur. In the checking down the votes that many were given votes that were intended for their opponents. The commissioners before leaving their election precincts ought to have verified the ballots and poll-books. I do not charge or in any way intimate that fraud or intentional errors were committed, but that the poll-books and ballots were not verified.

The majority given to Mr. Whiting is only forty-five, and if the ballots when examined show that twenty-three votes intended for me were given to him through mistake, then I have received the nomination. If Mr. Whiting has really received more votes than I, then he ought and I want him to have the nomination. On the other hand, if I really received the largest vote, I ought to receive the nomination and be so declared. I do not challenge or question a single voteonly ask to count the ballots. I do not insist that counters be selected outside of your commissioners, but am willing that Mr. Whiting and myself each select from the commissioners three friends to make this count, and we will abide by their decision, be it what it may. Respectfully submitted. A. B. DUESBERRY.

To this letter Colonel Cary replied as fol-RICHMOND, May 10, 1876. Mr. A. B. Duesberry, High Constable City

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT .- Judge Hughes transacted the following business Wednesday: The case of Mary A. Owen vs. The New hand, Isham H. Owen, of Danville, Va. The defendant demurred to the declaration on the ground that it claimed the loss on a policy executed before the war, and that the war of itself annulled the policy. The court overruled the demurrer, holding that the effect of the war upon policies was only to suspend them during the period of hostilities, and that insured persons could, after its termination, claim the benefit of their policies by paying up the back pre-The trial of the issues of fact was therefore proceeded with before the jury, and was not concluded.

To the Centennial Fare Reduced to New York As will be seen by the full and accurate reports in the telegraphic columns of the Dispatch this morning the Centennial exhibition has been formally opened, and with great fold. With every parietle Wirginian the question will now be how to continued the question will now be how to get there with the greatest degree of comfort and the least expense. Assumed that thousands, and perhaps hundreds of thousands, are anxious to see the great display and to celebrate the centennial anniversary of America's independence by a visit to Philadelphia, we take pleasure in announcing a further reduction in the fare by the Old Dominion Steamship Company.

A trip down the James river and the sea yourse from Norfolk at this season of the voyage from Norfolk at this season of the year possess unusual attractions, and as the splendid steamship Isaac Bell, of this line, has been fitted up exclusively for Centen nial passengers, this route will no doubt be liberally and extensively patronized. In this connection we may say the fare to New York has been reduced as follows:
